TWO WOLVES

Flynn has it all on TWO WOLVES: a great band, powerful material, a resolution to live and sing as he must at this stage of life.

"John Flynn is the John Lennon of the plasma generation" —Ramblin' Jack Elliot

"The truth is in the details; the gifts are an ear for accurate dialogue, an eye for powerful imagery and anything funny, and a heart open to surprises and the possibilities of moving the emotions...John Flynn is one of a special breed of good-hearted artists whose reaction to the human condition find kind, humorous expression." —Kris Kristofferson

"More than just a good song writer, performer, or guitar player, John Flynn is a friend because he actually does the kinds of things to help make the world a little better." —Arlo Guthrie

"John Flynn is as close as we come these days to a live Phil Ochs." —Sing Out!

TWO WOLVES features special guests KATHY MATTEA and KRIS KRISTOFFERSON (who sings backup on his own "HALL OF ANGELS," a previously unrecorded song).

While John Flynn has drawn ovations as well as invective from audiences unaccustomed to this sort of candor, he has never before put the pieces together with the insight reflected on TWO WOLVES. The wonder of this album is that it speaks to listeners as if it had emerged from their own inner world.

Songs of faith ("My Father's Chapel"), songs of hope ("Trust the Rope"), songs that honor ("Dover"), songs that measure our tolerance for hypocrisy ("Put Your Freedom Where Your Mouth Is") and our capacity for savoring the pleasures of love ("Sunflower"): With subtle metaphor and the plain poetry of common speech, with simple incantation ("No More War") and snapshot imagery ("Blink"), these songs convey essential messages, wrapped like gifts in the colors of music.

John (vocals, guitar, harmonica) is backed by a superlative cast that includes Duke Levine and Larry Campbell (guitars), John Conte (bass), Denny McDermott (drums), Stephanie Winters (cello) as well as singers Kris Kristofferson, Kathy Mattea, Jane Kelly Williams, and Amy Helm
